

Cornbread Festival

South Pittsburg, TN

Saturday, April 27

RSVP at fhbc.org/SeniorAdults to reserve your seat on the bus.

Admission: $7.00 per person, free transportation, lunch is on your own

Leave the church at 7:30am, return by 5:00pm

The National Cornbread Festival is a weekend-long celebration of cornbread and many cornbread related activities for adults and kids. You'll find us in the quaint town of South Pittsburg, Tennessee every year during the last full weekend in April.

Come and enjoy:

- National Lodge® Cast Iron Cornbread Cook-off
- Cornbread Alley (sample various cornbread recipes)
- Live music throughout the festival
- Arts and Crafts from area vendors
- Tours of the Lodge Cast Iron Foundry
- Cornbread 5K Race
- Tours of historic South Pittsburg
- Classic Car Cruise-In
- Cornbread Eating Contests

Play games, ride carnival rides, and enjoy wandering through the booths that line the streets of historic South Pittsburg. Enjoy cornbread, handmade arts and crafts. Taste Southern, artisan treats like honey, fudge, and rock candies. The festival is packed with great family fun – including a Kid's Corner with games, face painting, and inflatables!

Schedule of Events:

- 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. – Bluegrass, Old Time, Traditional Jamming Tent
- 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. – Tours of Historic Neighborhoods (sign up @ Light #3)
- 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. – Classic Car Cruise-in at the Dixie Freeze
- 10:00 a.m. – National Championship Cook-off (Cook-off Stage)
- 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. – Lodge Foundry Plant Tours
- 1:00 p.m. – Nashville Songwriters (Keith Anderson, J.T. Harding, & Phil Barton) (Princess Theatre)
- 1:30 p.m. – 2017 Miss National Cornbread Festival Contest Winners Introduced (First Volunteer Stage)
- 1:45 p.m. – National Cornbread Festival Cook-Off Winners Announced (Cook-off Stage)
- 2:30 p.m. – Lodge Cooking Demo – Chef Shannon Johnson & Chef Kris Stubblefield (Cook-off Stage)
- 3:00 p.m. – National Championship Cook-Off Heat (Cook-off Stage)